

INVITATION

It is my great pleasure to announce that the 2019 International Conference (KSMO 2019) & 12th Annual Meeting of the Korean Society of Medical Oncology will be held in Seoul, Korea from November 7 to 8, 2019. The Korean Society of Medical Oncology (KSMO) has been actively cultivating expertise in medical oncology since the foundation of the society in 2005, and now we would like to take a historic leap and hold our first international conference, thus opening our exchange with the entire world. Incorporating a multidisciplinary approach, a diverse range of professionals will present their latest research and engage in active networking with around 1,000 participants. KSMO 2019 will be the best opportunity to exchange and develop your ideas with experts in our field.

I look forward to seeing you at KSMO 2019.
