2nd MACR International Scientific Conference

Hybrid

"Next Generation Cancer Therapeutics - Where are We Heading?"

Date: 7 & 8 December 2022

Venue: MAHSA University, Bandar Saujana Putra Campus, Jenjarom, Selangor, MALAYSIA

About the conference:

The Malaysian Association for Cancer Research (MACR) is proud to organize the second MACR International Scientific Conference (MSC) in partnership with Malaysian Oncological Society (MOS) and local public & private universities.

MSC aims to provide a major convening platform for cancer research communities based locally and abroad. This two-day conference is expected to open up avenues for meaningful collaboration at the regional and global levels to promote cancer drug discovery and development through integrative research.

The various topics that will be covered by this conference include but are not limited to:

- ▶ Novel cancer drug target identification
- ▶ New cancer drug discoveries
- ▶ Translational cancer medicine
- ▶ Clinical trials of new cancer drugs
- ▶ Diagnostic & prognostic values of new cancer markers
- ▶ Cancer prevention
- ▶ Precision oncology
