PRODVANCE2022@GMAIL.COM

COURSE DIRECTOR
DR. ASHOK KUMAR
HOD, RADIATION ONCOLOGY, ARMY HOSPITAL R&R

Association of Radiation Oncologists of India (AROI) has always focused on being at the forefront of academic and research activities in radiation oncology all across the country and covering all aspects of radiotherapeutic management. Radiotherapy has witnessed markedly rapid progress in cancer care. Present day radiation techniques aim to reduce the complications and increase tumor control.

PRODVANCE is a career orientation initiative for young radiation oncologists organized by Indian College of Radiation Oncology (ICRO), academic wing of AROI, which is organized every year at Zonal Level. This year's program of North Zone will be organized by Department of Radiation Oncology, Army Hospital R&R, Delhi on 23-24 July 2022 at Action Cancer Hospital, New Delhi.

Trainees in the subject of Radiation Oncology and MD/DNB Radiation Oncologist with less than 10 years of experience are encouraged to register by 15th July 2022. Registration are limited to 100 on first cum first served basis.

There will be special session on hepatobiliary brachytherapy..

We are pleased to invite you all to PRODVANCE 2022 at Delhi.
